HOTEL FORT CANNING
SINGAPORE

Opening Aug/Sep 2010
Website Under Construction

A city oasis, the 86-room Hotel Fort Canning promises a unique sojourn. Formerly the British Far East Command Headquarters during World War II, the majestic colonial building which dates back to 1926 presents a collection of individually-styled boutique suites and rooms. Surrounded by greenery, this park setting straddles not only the Orchard Road shopping belt, the Clarke Quay entertainment hub, but the Central Business District, and the Civic District. All in all - a most coveted address.

Meetings & Events

Hotel Fort Canning is a unique, prestigious venue for conference, meetings and dining events. The 500-seater Legends Ballroom and 250-seater Lavender Ballroom with state-of-the-art lighting and audio-visual equipment can be partitioned into smaller function rooms for meetings and dining.
